

Calling hospitals and Qur ' an schools by the names of prominent Muslims
Is it permissible to call charitable projects, hospitals, Qur ' aan schools and so on by the names of prominent Muslims, such as the Sahaabah, Taabi ' een and those who came after them such as guided imams and leaders of jihad, or not?.

Praise be to Allaah.

There is nothing wrong with calling charitable projects, hospitals, Qur ' aan schools and so on by the names of prominent Muslims, such as the Sahaabah, Taabi ' een and those who came after them such as guided imams and leaders of jihad. This calling is not a kind of innovation in any way; rather it is something that is permissible.

And Allaah is the source of strength. May Allaah send blessings and peace upon our Prophet Muhammad and his family and Companions.
